Offense(s)

FELONY CONSPIRACY; FELONY CONSPIRACY

The court finds:

- 1) A magistrate has found probable cause exists for these offenses;
2) "Conspiracy" to commit any crime is not specifically enumerated as a violent offense...
3) This is an ongoing investigation;
4) The other two parties to the conspiracy have not been arrested;
5) The conspiracy is to kill as many Jews as possible by driving through a congregation at a synagogue;
6) Allowing a co-conspirator a chance to communicate with either of those individuals or those who could relay a message puts lives at risk;
7) A simple order that the defendant not communicate with any or certain individuals is insufficient because a violation could only be determined after the fact;
8) Preventative detention is necessary in this case to prevent communication or access to communication which is likely to place lives at risk;
9) Defendant was brought before the court at the earliest scheduled first appearance hearing after her arrest, she was represented by counsel and was given an opportunity to be heard and was actually heard through counsel prior to the court setting conditions of her release.
10) A court date was set for further hearing on 13 May 2026.
11) This preventative detention is necessary, under the current circumstances to ensure safety to the community.
